

Families in the district responding to the survey- 49.2%

Families indicating that their opposition to a change is primarily based on childcare- 31.5%

Families indicating they have students in the elementary school- 67%

Families indicating they have students in the middle school- 40.5%

Families indicating they have students in the high school- 36.4%